The new Ushers' Schedule is ready for distribution. In order for this program to be successful, greeters are asked to follow their schedule. As always, we should keep in mind that everyone should welcome guests to our church. A warm smile and a few kind words go far in making people feel welcome. A friendly and caring parish is a growing parish.

Also, the new Altar Boy has been mailed to all parents. Last year the Altar Boys had outstanding success in following their schedule. We pray that this will continue this year.

Our profound condolences and prayers are offered to Mykola Schidowka, children Alex and Sophia and the entire family on the death of their beloved wife and mother Michelle who entered into eternity on Monday, September 10th at the age of 41. Funeral services were conducted from our church yesterday, Saturday, September 15th. Michelle was a member of our Ukrainian Choir with a beautiful alto voice. Following a very difficult illness, she has been freed from all her pain and suffering. We believe she is now singing with the angels in a place where there is no sickness, suffering nor sadness but life everlasting. May her memory be eternal! Vichnaya Pamyat!
